

Angsoeng Library founder and owner (The Cambodia Daily Associate Editor) LOR Chandara aka "LC" acknowledges the generosity of Chuck Theusch and his fellow American veterans, the builders of libraries in Vietnam and Laos, for $7,500 (the first installment of $10,000)

LC spends this money to get his Angsoeng Library a vast variety of spaces for multi-interest learning centers. LC wants to show how small money can create big space at a time.
